

Testvale Squares Visit to Tilehurst Autumn Dance

A group of Testvale dancers joined Tilehurst Squares near Reading for their Autumn Dance on 17th October.

Five of us travelled up for this dance, called by Simon and Trudy Fielding, and at the end of the day we all thought this was one of the best dances we've been to in 2026. Excellent calling, good dancing, six squares on the floor, and very tasty homemade cakes during the tea-break.

An added bonus that no-one lost their lunch to marauding Red Kites this time! We look forward to returning to Tilehurst in 2027.
